WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT NEW HOPE

We are grateful you have joined us today and invite you to participate fully in the worship, education, and mission life of our church.

During Today's Worship

Large-print bulletins and hearing enhancement equipment are available for ease of worship. An usher will be happy to assist you. At the close of worship, please return the unit to the sound booth at the rear of the sanctuary.

Children are especially welcome in our worship services, because faith is formed by the practices that shape it. Red worship bags for young children (non-readers) and blue bags for older children (readers) may be found on the wall outside the sanctuary. An usher will help you locate one. If you would like a worship bag with your child's name on it, you may fill out a request form on the Welcome Table or call the church office (936.2200). Parents who prefer child care will find the infant nursery on the first floor and the Pre-K nursery on the lower-level.

Worship Feast, an experience to help elementary-age children develop awareness of God's presence and openness to mystery through a variety of prayer practices, is available during the 11:00 service. Children who wish to participate will be dismissed after the Gospel Reading.

Preparing for worship...Please silence cell phones upon entering the sanctuary. The need may arise for you to exit the service early. If so, please refrain from exiting during prayers, reading of scripture and choral anthems. Natural and appropriate exit points are during congregational hymns or sung responses. Your courtesy is appreciated. Also, as a kindness to fellow worshippers, please do not take flash photos during the worship service.

Coins for Concern...All loose coins in the offering baskets go toward the youth mission trip to New Orleans. The Ministry, Mission & Evangelism (MME) Committee has challenged the congregation with the goal of $1000 in loose change, so let those offering baskets jingle!

Ushering for today's worship: (8:45) Michael Black, Cindy Martin, Jim & Debbie Phillips (11:00) Kirk Garten, Bill & Linda Judd, Kristin Judd, Ken Pinkley, Joe Seidler, Ben & Christie Tutschulte.

Liturgist: Del Phillips

Acolyte: (11:00) Luke Hantack Water-bearer: (11:00) Mitchell Hantack

The start of the Prelude signals the time to enter a period of quiet reflection.

This prayer is offered as an aid to help worshipers center the heart and mind for worship.

God of our wilderness,
as we devote these forty days to you,
shape us by your Holy Spirit
into the image of Christ our Lord,
so that we may be ready, by your grace,
to confront the power of death
with the promise of eternal life. Amen.

“I’ve Been Wondering...” FAQs About Worship

What if I feel moved to receive Communion, but am not baptized?

The Lord’s Supper and Baptism are inseparable. If you feel called by the Holy Spirit to meet Christ in Communion, we believe that you are also being called to Baptism. We will not turn anyone away from the Lord’s Table, but we do invite you to speak to the pastor or a member of the session about Baptism as soon as possible.

For more information about the relationship between Baptism and the Lord’s Supper, see the Presbyterian Church (USA) Directory for Worship (especially W-2.4006 and W-2.4011) and Invitation to Christ: A Guide to Sacramental Practices, available online at www.pcusa.org/sacraments.

What is Lent?

Lent is a season of the church year, a period of 40 days (not including Sundays) that serves as a time of preparation for Easter. Lent, as a liturgical season, is more restrained and somber than during other seasons of the year, yet the Sundays in Lent witness not only the Lord’s passion and death, but also his victory over sin and death. Even so, service music containing “alleluia” is traditionally not sung during these weeks. For a similar reason, the church refrains from singing the Doxology and the Gloria Patri (“Glory be to the Father”) during this season.

The Lenten season is a journey with Jesus along the path to Jerusalem and the cross. It is a time to repent, which literally means “to turn around,” to turn again to God with renewed trust and gratitude for the steadfast love and faithfulness of God. As such, Lent serves as a time of preparing for baptism and the renewal of the baptismal covenant in the journey toward Easter. The color of the season is purple, the color of royalty—and also the color of the robe put on Jesus when he was mocked and beaten (John 19:2). Thus, purple has become the color of sacrifice and penitence.

Why do we “bury” the alleluias at the start of Lent?

What we do with alleluias only makes sense in context with the larger meaning of Lent. So let’s start there. Lent arrives each year as the earth prepares to awaken from its winter slumber. So, too, does the church prepare itself for renewal in the springtime of Christ’s resurrection. Lent is about the church recovering its center in the dying and rising of Christ as well as preparing candidates being called by God to the waters of baptism. In short, we all learn again how deep is our hunger for God. Marking this spiritual journey are faith practices: communion with God, restraint from excess, and generous sharing. We know these practices as prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. When we bury alleluias (removing them from our worship) for the season of Lent, we begin a “fast” from using a word which is pungent with the fragrance of Easter. Like seed planted in the soil, we put away our alleluias until that time (at the Great Vigil) when their return to the liturgy trumpets the glory of the resurrection. So, on Transfiguration Sunday, we sing an entire feast of alleluias and, then, with reverence and joy, place them in a “coffin” for 40 days.

Last year, the 2013 Coins for Concern sponsored three mission projects: Heifer International, OASIS food pantry and the adult mission trip. Through giving your loose change to the weekly offering baskets, we raised almost $300.00. We have received thanks from all three groups, and here's what they said.

"Thanks to your generous spirit, Heifer International is helping families in need all over the world. Together we are providing the right tools and opportunities to help them achieve self-reliance - igniting transformation in families and projects all over the world."

"Thank you so much for your donation to the OASIS Food Pantry. Your gift means so much to the families that receive help from OASIS." "Thank you all so much for your support of us as we went on the adult mission trip. Knowing that you encouraged us and provided funding for us meant so much. Bless you!"

This year, 2014 Coins for Concern will help sponsor the youth mission trip. Our challenge is to help raise $1000 for our kids to go to New Orleans. So, please bring your spare change each Sunday and place it in the offering baskets. Our youth will be so appreciative of your support.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

Save the date of Sunday, March 23rd for the next PW meeting! We will be celebrating our "Hats on for Cancer" that day and commemorating our donations to "Friends of Kids with Cancer." Children and youth of our church are invited to attend the luncheon. A decorated hat box will be on the Welcome Table during Sundays in March encouraging all church members to contribute their donations to this valuable organization. During the meeting, Ann Schmid will share a presentation on "Hats in Art". Lunch will be Subway sandwiches, chips and cookies. Reservation forms are on the Information Table and the PW Bulletin Board and can be turned in the offering baskets or church office. Please bring individually sealed candy and/or stickers of help stuff Easter Eggs for the church Easter Egg Hunt. Be sure to wear your hats on Sunday, March 23rd!
