PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (USA)

January 22, 2017

WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT NEW HOPE

We are grateful you have joined us today and invite you to participate fully in the worship, education, and mission life of our church.

During Today's Worship

Large-print bulletins and hearing enhancement equipment are available for ease of worship.

An usher will be happy to assist you. At the close of worship, please return the unit to the sound booth at the rear of the sanctuary.

Children are especially welcome in our worship services, because faith is formed by the practices that shape it. Red worship bags for young children (non-readers) and blue bags for older children (readers) may be found on the wall outside the sanctuary. An usher will help you locate one. If you would like a worship bag with your child's name of it, you may fill out a request form on the Information Table or call the church office (936.2200). Parents who prefer child care will find the nursery on the first floor (Room 204).

Worship Feast, an experience to help elementary-age children develop awareness of God's presence and openness to mystery through a variety of prayer practices, is available during the 11:00 service. Children who wish to participate will be dismissed after the Gospel Reading. They will exit by the side (north) door and be escorted to the lower-level.

Preparing for worship... Please silence cell phones upon entering the sanctuary. The need may arise for you to exit the service early. If so, please refrain from exiting during prayers, reading of scripture and choral anthems. Natural and appropriate exit points are during congregational hymns or sung responses. Your courtesy is appreciated. Also, as a kindness to fellow worshippers, please do not take flash photos during the worship service.

Ushering for today's worship: (8:45) Jerry & Rhonda Dyer, Margo VanMill. (11:00) Kim Carr, Mel Fairchild, Jim Pettit, Bill & Ruth Reilly.

Flowers: To the glory of God and in honor of Donna Huffman's birthday, given by a friend.

Liturgist: Elder Bryan Eikmann

Sound Booth: (8:45) Bill Irvine (11:00) Deb Garten

THE GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING & THE LORD'S PRAYER

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Blessed are you, Lord of heaven and earth.
From age to age your creation sings your praises.
You feed even the birds of the air,
and you clothe the fields with lilies.
You gave your blessing to Abraham
and his descendants,
and you spoke with Moses, Elijah, and David.
Blessed are you, Lord our God.

Blessed are you, Lord our God.

You fulfilled your covenant to us in Jesus.
He is Emmanuel, your beloved Son,
the star that guides us to wisdom,
the treasure hidden in a field.
He is the landowner who overpays the workers,
the judge who separates good from evil.
Blessed are you, Lord our God.

Blessed are you, Lord our God.

For us he lived, for us he died,
for us he rose to eternal life.
Then and now he invites us to your banquet.
On the night before he died, he took bread,
and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.
Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and give it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood,
shed for you and for all people

for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.
We hear his call, we repent our ways,
and we enter with joy into the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are you, Lord our God.

Blessed are you, Lord our God.

Send your Holy Spirit here
on your gathered disciples.
Make of this meal the body and blood of forgiveness.
Heal us and grant us your righteousness,
that we may love you and serve our neighbors.
Blessed are you, Lord our God.

Blessed are you, Lord our God.

Blessed are you, Lord our God,
our Father in heaven,
the Rock on which we build,
the Dove alighting on us all.
We worship you and sing our praises,
today and to the end of the age. Amen.

Amen.

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray:

...Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever. Amen.

THE RITE OF ORDINATION & INSTALLATION OF DEACONS & RULING ELDERS

SENTENCES OF SCRIPTURE

There are a variety of gifts, 1 Corinthians 12:4-7, 27
but it is the same Spirit who gives them.

There are different ways of serving God,
but is the same Lord who is served.

God works through each person in a unique way,
but it is God's purpose that is accomplished.

To each is given a gift of the Spirit to be used for the common good.

Together we are the body of Christ,
and individually members of it.

MUSIC NOTES

Composer Louis Bourgeois (ca. 1510-1561) was born in Paris but moved to Geneva in 1541 and lived there until 1557. Bourgeois was a friend of John Calvin. Bourgeois and others contributed tunes for the Genevan Psalter, including GENEVAN 42 and OLD HUDREDTH. Today's hymn I Believe in God the Father is set to the tune GENEVAN 42, which would have been used to sing the text of the 42nd psalm. The most familiar of the psalm tunes from the Genevan Psalter is OLD HUNDREDTH. We frequently sing this tune for The Doxology, or "Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow".

Endings & Beginnings: The Rite of Ordination & Installation
New Hope Presbyterian Church, January 22, 2017

Today we celebrate the ordination and installation of Deacons and Ruling Elders. The Presbyterian Church (USA) as a denomination is defined by its theology and that theology directly informs our governing structure, or polity. The name Presbyterian comes from the Greek word that means “elder” or “wisest one.” With Christ as the head of the church, we have established a system for governance that is representative and democratic. Power and authority are not held by a bishop, as in more hierarchical denominations, but by the assembled body of presbyters which consists of both elders (also known as “ruling elders”), who are elected by congregations and ordained by Sessions, and Ministers of Word and Sacrament (also known as “teaching elders”). We value shared authority and power and so we work together with other congregations within a structure called a Presbytery, in a region called a Synod, and as a national body called the General Assembly.

Ruling elders, together with Ministers of Word and Sacrament (teaching elders), make up the Session of the congregation. The function of the Session is to govern the life of the congregation. Deacons make up the Diaconate or Board of Deacons, and serve to care for the members of the congregation, as well as minister to the needs of the larger community. Each year, the congregation is asked to nominate from among its members, people to serve as ruling elders and deacons. The Nominating Committee prays over those nominations and presents a slate of nominees to the congregation to be voted upon and elected to those respective ordered ministries. Once a person is ordained to the office of elder or deacon, that person is an elder or deacon, respectively, for life. Once that person’s term of active service on the Session or Diaconate is over, that person can be called again through the voice of the church to serve another term. When that happens, he or she is not re-ordained, but rather is installed again to active service. The service of ordination and installation is rooted in the baptismal covenant of the church. All candidates for ordination and/or installation, as well as all the baptized of the congregation are reminded of their own calls to discipleship in Jesus Christ.

Today, eleven members of New Hope are being ordained and/or installed to service as ruling elders and deacons in and for the church. Sharon Barnes and Jennifer Bommarito are being ordained and installed as Deacons. Deacons Bob Dencker, Carolyn Doerr, Linda Judd and Stan Whiteley are being installed to active service on the Diaconate. Jerry Dyer, Bill Lamey and Alyssa Murray are being ordained and installed as Ruling Elders. Elders Kirk Garten and Sue White are being installed to active service on the Session.

Just as today is a beginning for those named above, it is also an ending for elders and deacons who are completing their terms of service. Ruling elders Sam Connor, Linda Dencker, Shelley Geiger, Craig Graber, Bill Pires and Jim Salter are ending their active service on the Session today; and Deacons Earl Bostic, Ruth Connor, Marion Hamilton and Stan Whiteley are ending their service on the Diaconate. (Stan Whiteley is being installed on the Diaconate today to fill a one-year term.) These elders and deacons have led this congregation well over the past several years in faithful leadership and service. Let us join together in thanksgiving and gratitude for their ministry.
