WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT NEW HOPE

We are grateful you have joined us today and invite you to participate fully in the worship, education, and mission life of our church.

During Today's Worship

Large-print bulletins and hearing enhancement equipment are available for ease of worship. An usher will be happy to assist you. At the close of worship, please return the unit to the sound booth at the rear of the sanctuary.

Children are especially welcome in our worship services, because faith is formed by the practices that shape it. Red worship bags for young children (non-readers) and blue bags for older children (readers) may be found on the wall outside the sanctuary. An usher will help you locate one. If you would like a worship bag with your child's name on it, you may fill out a request form on the Welcome Table or call the church office (936.2200). Parents who prefer child care will find the infant nursery on the first floor and the Pre-K nursery on the lower-level.

Worship Feast, an experience to help elementary-age children develop awareness of God's presence and openness to mystery through a variety of prayer practices, is available during the 11:00 service. Children who wish to participate will be dismissed after the Gospel Reading.

Preparing for worship...Please silence cell phones upon entering the sanctuary. The need may arise for you to exit the service early. If so, please refrain from exiting during prayers, reading of scripture and choral anthems. Natural and appropriate exit points are during congregational hymns or sung responses. Your courtesy is appreciated. Also, as a kindness to fellow worshippers, please do not take flash photos during the worship service.

Ushering for today's worship: (8:45) Jerry & Rhonda Dyer, Margo VanMill. (11:00) Jerry Brown, Kim & Linda Carr, Mel Fairchild, Jim Pettit, Bill & Ruth Reilly,

Flowers: To the glory of God and in loving memory of her mother's birthday on October 21st and in memory of her father's passing on October 28th, and as thanks to God for blessing her with such wonderful parents, given by Barbara White.

Acolyte: (11:00) Katie Groat

Reformation Sunday

Reformation Sunday is a celebration peculiar to Protestant traditions. It is a time to recall the fact that the Church of Jesus Christ must ever and always be about the business of renewal if it is not to sink into staid traditionalism. It's a time to recall the fact that the gospel of Jesus Christ is, and of necessity must be, highly adaptive. If the story of our faith cannot be retold in ways that are meaningful to each new generation, it will die.

The achievements of the early Reformers—those we celebrate today—are dramatic:

- the decentralization of church authority from the monolithic Roman model to more congregational and representative forms of church government;
- the congregational singing of psalms;
- the articulation of the “priesthood of all believers” as opposed to the “preeminence” of clergy;
- ordination as a functional responsibility, not some indelible, elitist order;
- the elevation of preaching and teaching to a level of importance equal to that of sacramental celebration;
- the mass publication of Scripture and the recognition of the right—indeed the obligation—of all Christians to read and weigh the impact of it for their own lives;
- the conduct of worship in each congregation’s native language, so that all have equal access to its intellectual, as well as its mystical, rewards; and,
- the dramatic increase in congregational participation in the act of worship, especially in prayer and song.

Reformation Sunday is an opportunity for us to remind ourselves that these are gifts. It is a time to remind ourselves of our need to be about the task of continual renewal as a central and ongoing concern. And it is a time to celebrate those who, with particular devotion, contributed in ways large and small to our great past of which we are the most recent beneficiaries.

SAFE SANCTUARY

There is one remaining opportunity to participate in Safe Sanctuary Training. Everyone who works with children or youth is required to be Safe Sanctuary "certified" every three years. Training will be offered on Thursday, October 30 at 7 p.m. The class is approximately one and a half hours long. Childcare may be offered if requested. If you would like to attend, please contact Barbi Smith at stlbarbi99@gmail.com or 314 807-2211.

OCTOBER MEAL-A-MONTH

2 cans stew, 1 box rice or pasta mix, 1 can vegetables, 1 can fruit, 1 box/bag cookies, 1 item of your choice.

BOOKMARKS

If you find a laminated book mark in your hymnal on Sunday morning, it is a gift from a child in our Worship Feast Program. Worship Feast is "where the children go when they leave worship", after their time with Chris. During Worship Feast, our children learn to quiet and center their bodies, their hearts and their minds and engage in a variety of prayer activities. The Zentangle Bookmarks are one of the activities offered. As children quietly and contemplatively color the bookmarks, they are encouraged to think about the things for which they are thankful and then to offer a prayer of thanks. Children may choose to take their bookmark home or donate it to a hymnal.

NEW CHRISTIAN FORMATION OPPOTUNITIES

STICKY FAITH
Sundays, October 19 - November 16
9:45 - 10:45 a.m.

Most parents would give anything to anchor their children with a vibrant faith that "sticks" and continues to mature long-term. Yet despite this deep desire, research indicates that approximately 40-50% of high school seniors drift from their faith after graduation. In response to this problem, the Fuller Youth Institute (FYI) has launched the College Transition Project, a national longitudinal study following 400 high school seniors during their first three years in college. This provocative and needed research is geared to spark a movement that empowers parents, churches, leaders, and adults of all ages to develop robust and long-term faith in kids. Please sign up for this course on the form on the Information Table or by emailing Barbi Smith at bsmith@nhpres.org.

DREAM

Tuesdays, October 28 - November 25
9:15 - 10:45 a.m. and 7 - 8:30 p.m.

Christianity has been expressed in countless ways over the centuries. The 21st century is no different. DreamThinkBeDo is not about "what" to believe. It's not about projecting someone else's "truth." It's a springboard for conversation about what's next for those who follow Jesus. "Love God with all your heart, soul, strength, and mind (Luke 10:27) is the place to start.

USED BOOKS COLLECTION

The MME committee continues to need gently used books for distribution to various organizations in St Charles. This year we were successful in providing books to prisoners in the St Charles County jail and well as several retirement venues in the area. All have been very appreciative of the donated books. There will be a drop of box by the information table available for your donations.

WORK DAY

The Mission, Ministry and Evangelism Committee and the Adult Mission Team are sponsoring a work day on Nov 8, 2014 to raise funds for the 2015 Adult Mission Trip. The 2015 trip will again benefit Habitat for Humanity of Pensacola and will occur on June 13-20. This year's fundraising efforts hope to include a donation to the local (St. Charles) Habitat for Humanity organization as well.

You can support the mission trip by saving jobs that the mission team can complete for a free-will donation; or you can help with the work directly. The work can be done on Nov 8 or on a mutually agreeable date. Please contact Mark Everly at 636-575-4125 to participate.

SPOTLIGHT ON MISSIONS

The Covering House.

Thanks to the Fellowship Committee for providing the meal, and to the PW and a host of other volunteers for the successful Peacemaking Luncheon. We were troubled to learn of the extent of human trafficking in the St. Louis area, but inspired and encouraged by the work of the Covering House. They provide a safe environment for rescued girls. Your free-will offerings were donated to the Covering House.

Oasis Food Pantry News

Due to Thanksgiving activities, NHPC will not go to Oasis in November. Our next opportunity to serve will be December 13th. Instead, here's a special November challenge! Oasis donates birthday cake mixes and icing to families who have birthdays to celebrate. Make someone's birthday special! Bring in your favorite cake and icing mixes and place them in the basket at the information table, or hand them to Neal Powers. Let's see how many boxes he can juggle at one time.
